

July 11 Tama Gawa

It was a hot and windy Saturday, a good day for baseball as the Bermudas and Sony Trading met to do battle. Shiose was masterful from the beginning, putting Sony Trading down without a run in the top of the first and chalking up the first of his eleven strikeouts on the day. In the bottom half of the first, the Bermudas picked up a run--little did anyone know that that was all Shiose would need that day--when Iyama got on on an error, moved to second on a walk to Takebuchi, stole third and came home with the Bermuda's first run. It was more of the same in the top half of the second as Shiose retired the side and added two more strikeouts. But in the bottom half of the second, the Bermudas exploded for 5 runs. With Raths, Fujimoto, and Takebuchi getting on on walks, Hara getting on on an error, and some timely hitting by Iyama and Kobayashi, the Bermudas moved them around for 5 runs. Score at the end of 2: Bermudas 6 Sony Trading 0. After that, it was all Shiose as he went on to blank Sony Trading, registering the first no-hitter of the year. Shiose's final statistics: 11 strikeouts, 1 walk, and a couple of bean balls. The Bermudas added 2 more runs in the fourth when Kobayashi tripled home Iyama and Shiose and 1 more in the sixth when Ohashi doubled home Shiose. Kobayashi had the big stick that day with 2 key hits and 4 RBIs. All in all, the Bermudas played well with a balanced attack of hitting, pitching, and fielding. Final score: Bermudas 9 Sony Trading 0.
